APPLE PICKING TIME

Have you ever had the exhilarating experience of picking great, big, luscious apples in a beautiful Virginia orchard? The air is crisp and there is a smell of fall in the air. Little white fluffs of clouds float in the bright blue sky and the sun is warm and friendly on your back. We've been there and we love it and what's more we've heard of a grand opportunity for you to enjoy this wonderful experience.

The Virginia apple growers need pickers this fall, just as all other growers have needed assistance all summer.

At Timberville, which is in the beautiful Shenandoah Valley, 750 pickers are needed from October 2 to 28. Pickers must work a week or more at Timberville.

At Winchester, twenty people are needed each week from the 15th of September thru the end of October. Workers will be accepted there for three days or more.

At Chilcott Orchard on Chain Bridge Road, near Vienna, pickers are needed from Sept. 11 to Oct. 30. Twenty-five pickers are needed each day and you may sign up for Sunday work, in case you've already taken a vacation and have only a Sunday todevote to apple picking.

If you have picked apples, you'll know how much fun it is, and if you haven't, you'll want to start now, so go to see Mr. John W. Jones of the Extension Service, who is at 503 K. St., N. W., or phone DI. 7000, ext. 377. By the way, you'll be paid 10¢ a basket which will amount to $4.00 to $6.00 a day.

There are adequate living accommodations at both Timberville and Winchester, and the Chilcott Orchards are close enough so that you may commute. If you wish to drive to any of these places, Mr. Jones will see that you are certified for the proper amount of gas.

Mr. Jones has also stated that fifty men are needed by the farmers of Fairfax Co. from Aug. 28 to Oct. 1, to cut corn and fill silos. You may live in Herndon or commute. You will be paid 50ϕ an hour. Workers will be accepted for two or more days.

BLOOD DONORS

We've been very much excited about the allied successes in France during the past few weeks, and a number of people on the home front have relaxed with these first signs of success. One thing we must remember, however, is that those boys are still out there in battle and still need blood plasma to save their lives. Don't relax in this vital contribution which you may In addition to sending the plasma, the Blood Donor Center is now sending whole blood to England. Call miss McFadden on ext. 3281 today, and make an appointment to go to the Blood Donor Center.

In addition to this service with the Blood Donor Center, Miss McFadden also furnishes donors to give direct transfusions to members, of the Department and their families.

Several days ago, one of the Department employees, Mr. Arthur Garner, who had infantile paralysis as a child, called Miss McFadden to offer to give his blood to anyone suffering from infantile paralysis. MESSAGE TO PARENTS

A national drive, addressed to American youth and their parents thruout the U. S. is under way. Uncle Sam wants his boys and girls to be in line when the school bell rings this fall. He's grateful for the assistance the youngsters have given all summer by working on vacation jobs, but when school opens their place is back in class, learning how to become better citizens and to shoulder the tasks which will be theirs when they have matured into men and women. We hope your children will be among the 6,000,000 others in U. S. schools this fall.
